THE ART BOOK

A floating shelf with a dark grey finish holds several books, including "GRAPHIC DESIGN HISTORY", "THE ART BOOK", and "EAMES". A small sculpture of a person on a bicycle is also on the shelf. Below the shelf is a large flat-screen TV displaying a night cityscape with a prominent tower.

A white modular cabinet with open shelving and closed doors. The open shelves contain books, including "THE ART BOOK", and a small potted plant. The closed doors are on the right side of the unit.

A long, low-profile white base cabinet with a dark grey top section. The dark grey section has an open shelf containing books like "THE ART BOOK", "ART IS...", and "ICONIC NEW YORK". The white section has a recessed area for a TV and a small potted plant. To the right, there are two decorative vases and a glass lamp.

The shelving unit features a combination of materials: light-colored wood for the shelves and some cabinet doors, dark wood for other cabinet doors, and a black metal frame. The unit is divided into several sections:

- Top Section: A dark wood cabinet door on the left, a green cube-shaped open cabinet in the center, and a tall black metal frame on the right.
- Second Section: A light wood cabinet door on the left, a large light wood cabinet door in the center, and a light wood cabinet door on the right.
- Third Section: A dark wood cabinet door on the left, a green cube-shaped open cabinet in the center, and a light wood cabinet door on the right.
- Bottom Section: A dark wood cabinet door on the left, a white cube-shaped open cabinet in the center, and a light wood cabinet door on the right.

Decorative items include framed photos, books (e.g., "THE BIG ROOM", "WAR and PEACE", "Design as Art"), vases, a large white letter 'M', and a glass bowl.
